

THIS IS THE ISSUE in which we alienate some of our friends of long-standing... Some for a brief period and others for a longer time.

But, as we have always done in the past in the last edition of The Press before a city election, on the editorial page in this issue appear our "endorsements" for the city offices in next Tuesday's election.

The editorial recommends the election of Ralph Doetsch (incumbent) and Bill Podgorske for the two seats on the City Council that are open. Mayor Homer Hyde is not running for reelection and Podgorske, vice-chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission, is seeking the council seat now occupied by Homer.

The Press editorially recommends also the election of Nadine Sargent for city treasurer. Nadine, a life-time resident of Campbell, a graduate of the local schools, a housewife and mother with 20 years of banking experience, is, in our opinion, eminently qualified for the office of city treasurer.

Although City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan is unopposed for her fifth term in office, we urge a vote of confidence for her.

Dorothy has shown by her performance during the past 18 years that the City of Campbell is fortunate in having a person of her capabilities in the office of City Clerk.

Of course, it would be nice (and we could sleep better nights), if it were possible for the writer of this column to take one stand on an issue and the editorial writer to take the opposite side. (That does happen in the metropolitan press at times.)

But wouldn't that be sort of a silly thing to do in The Campbell Press, inasmuch as you gals and guys know the score?

(We don't even change hats when we turn out the stuff. We don't wear any, for that matter.)

The point is, of course, that we do take a stand sometimes. And we do lose friends that-away.

Difference of opinion is what makes the world go 'round, or horse races, as Mark Twain pointed out.

As we have said so many times, we mark our "secret" ballot in public, the only such case in town. (We don't even know how our Dorothy is voting, unless she chooses to tell us. And most of the time she doesn't.)

The sad part of it all, of course, is that in the local elections we are always personally acquainted with the candidates, so making a choice is that much more difficult.

But we do. Then we let you know about it...publicly.

OBVIOUSLY NO ONE IS holding a gun on us. We don't have to make such a big thing of it.

We don't have to make any endorsement and the world will still go on.

There are many, of course, who claim that should be the policy that this newspaper should follow...Just urge people to vote...period.

Admittedly that would be the easiest course to follow.

And we have been tempted to do just that on occasion.

But that's not the way we are, as most of you know.

We take our responsibility seriously and sincerely.

We let the chips fall where they may.

So, what else is new?

City holds election next Tuesday

Three seek two Council posts; Treasurer faces opposition

Citizens of Campbell will go to the polls in 14 precincts next Tuesday, April 14, and name two councilmen, a city clerk and a city treasurer. There are 8629 registered voters within the city limits.

Three candidates, Ralph Doetsch, Bill Podgorske and Kel Young, are seeking the two positions that are open on the City Council. Mayor Homer Hyde is not seeking reelection. City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan, for the fifth consecutive four-year term is unopposed but City Treasurer Velma Olds, in office since 1958, faces the challenge of Mrs. Nadine Sargent.

Polls will open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Councilman Ralph Doetsch Sr., who, as a write-in candidate in 1962, was high man in that election and again led the balloting in 1966, is seeking reelection.

Doetsch, 56, orchardist-businessman, has lived in the area since 1921 and served as mayor during 1966-67.

William R. (Bill) Podgorske 41, co-owner of a printing firm in San Jose, has been a resident homeowner of Campbell for eight years and is vice-chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission. Podgorske, active in school, church and community affairs, served as chairman of the successful park bond campaign in 1969.

Kelvin S. Young, 62, also a candidate for the Council, is an electrical contractor and has been a resident of Campbell for the past 25 years. He was a member of the Planning Commission for six years and was chairman of that body when he resigned in April of 1969.

City Clerk Trevethan is completing 18 years as a city employee. She was appointed city clerk by the first City Council in 1952 and has run successfully and unopposed in every election since 1954.

In addition to the position of City Clerk, Mrs. Trevethan has been given added responsibilities by the various city councils under which she has served.

Mrs. Velma Olds, who was elected City Treasurer in 1958 when she defeated the late Ed Merriell, this city's first treasurer, is seeking her fifth term for the part-time position and is being challenged by Mrs. M. Nadine Sargent, a housewife and mother with 20 years of banking experience.

Mrs. Olds is the wife of the Rev. Corwin Olds, retired pastor of the Congregational Church of Campbell. Mrs. Sargent, a life-time resident of Campbell and a graduate of the local schools, was employed by Wells Fargo Bank for 15 years and was an executive with the Community Bank of San Jose for five years.

City Clerk Trevethan said that, although there are 8629 registered voters in the city, based on previous city elections, only an estimated 25% of the eligible voters will cast ballots next Tuesday.

She also added that only 12 requests for absentee ballots have been made of her office. (Absentees must have been filed before April 7.)

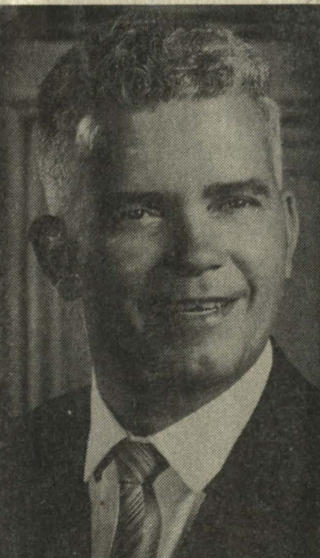

Mrs. Trevethan also pointed out that March 19 was the cut-off date for registration for the city election but that registration will not end for the June 2 primary until April 9.

She estimated that more than 10,000 will be eligible to vote in the city for the primary because of the intensive registration drive undertaken by various groups.

City Clerk Trevethan also reported that new legislation now requires that a write-in candidate must declare himself at the city clerk's office by April 9 or his votes will not be counted.

C. Warren Conrad resigns

Bob Culp becomes Westmont principal

Robert (Bob) Culp, principal of Campbell High for 12 years and who served in that school as teacher, dean, vice-principal and principal for a total of 21 years, has been named principal of Westmont High School.

C. Warren Conrad, principal of Westmont, has resigned to accept an assignment with the American Dependents Schools Abroad, according to Dr. Nicholas Montesano, district superintendent.

Conrad's resignation, effective at the end of the school year, was accepted with regret by the Board of Trustees.

Culp this year has been principal-at-large and attendance supervisor for the district.

To facilitate the transfer, Dr. Montesano said that the principals will be working together for the remainder of the school year and currently have, more or less, "traded" jobs.

Montesano pointed out that making the change now allows the new principal (Culp) to become acquainted with his staff, students and parents, which will assist him in making decisions regarding the school budget, hiring of personnel, scheduling and assignment of teachers, and assignment of extra activities.

Dr. Montesano commended Conrad as an outstanding individual who leaves many evidences of his achievement in the district. "He is highly regarded by his fellow administrators, faculty and parents," Montesano noted.

Conrad became principal of Westmont when the school opened in 1964. He began service in the district in 1958 as supervisor of physical education, health education and attendance in the district office.

He is a graduate of the University of California at Santa Barbara and earned his master's degree at USC.

Campbell High grad in CHP loses life

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. for George Michael (Mike) Allyn, California Highway Patrolman and former Campbell resident, who was shot and killed Monday in Saugus, California, while on duty.

Allyn, 24, was one of four patrolmen killed when they stopped a car containing two men with guns who were reported attempting to run another car off the highway.

One of the men in the stopped car opened fire, killing two officers. Two officers in a second patrol car were also killed. Russell Lowell Talbert was arrested and Jack Wright Twining was found dead in a house where he had apparently committed suicide.

Allyn was a 1964 graduate of Campbell High School and worked at IBM in Campbell before joining the CHP in 1968. He was named "student of the year" in the industrial arts department while in high school.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Allyn, 429 Calado Ave. He was married to the former Shirley Holland, also of Campbell.

Other survivors include his two children, Julie and Kevin of Saugus. He was the brother of Wesley and Dennis Allyn, both of Campbell, and Mrs. Judy Bussard of Virginia. He was a native of Texas.

Services will be held from the Campbell Memorial Chapel, 231 E. Campbell Ave.,

City Council next Monday again faces "sticky" zoning issues

A proposed annexation by the City of Campbell of properties on S. Bascom and the long-drawn-out Winchester Drive-In Theater zoning/third screen question will highlight the City Council's agenda next Monday, April 13.

And, both "features" are expected to draw well at the box office at Monday's showing, based on past performances.

Residents in both areas affected have already expressed their opposition to the proposals in definite terms in the preliminary skirmishes that have taken place. They are again expected to be out in force on Monday night.

It was indicated at the last City Council meeting that action will be taken on the Winchester Drive-In Theater, one way or another, next Monday night. Everyone was in agreement that the issue has been hanging fire long enough.

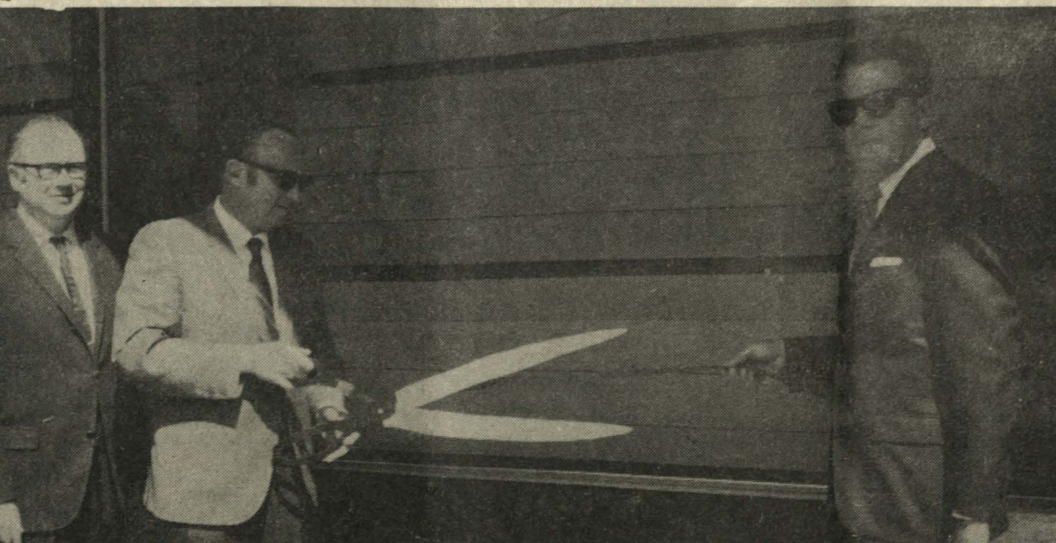

Involved is the request by Syufy Enterprises, operators of the present two-screen drive-in for a zone change and use permit which would allow a third screen on a six-acre parcel, owned by the theater people. The parcel, adjacent to the theater, is zoned for apartments.

Complicating matters is that Syufy Enterprises also applied for approval of a 244-unit apartment complex on the parcel. In approving the the apartments the Planning Commission specified that satisfactory access must be ob-

Three events highlight week-long "Congress"

"Know Your Campbell" will be the theme of this year's Congress for Community Progress which is scheduled in conjunction with Public Schools Week (April 20-24).

Three events will highlight the activities for the week.

Dr. Max Rafferty, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will be the keynote speaker at the banquet at 7 p.m. on Friday, April 24, which will culminate the week-long program which begins on Monday, April 20.

The banquet will be held in the Campbell High cafeteria and tickets for this affair are $3.50.

The Rev. W. H. (Ben) Gould, pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Campbell, is chairman of this year's Congress. The Rev.

Gould served as chairman also of the last two congresses.

Monday's program (April 20) emphasizes the economic facets of Campbell and tours, under the guidance of the Chamber of Commerce, are slated for the industrial and commercial areas of the city.

Editorial

The Press endorses

CITY COUNCIL

The Campbell Press endorses Ralph Doetsch and William (Bill) Podgorssek for the City Council in next Tuesday's election (April 14). Two councilmen are to be elected.

Doetsch is completing his second term on the City Council. In the 1962 election he ran as write-in candidate and topped the field. In the 1964 election he also ran first in the balloting which gives some idea of the respect in which he is held in this community.

Doetsch's down-to-earth philosophy, plus his earnest desire as shown by his actions as a city councilman to make Campbell a better community, are assets, we feel, that are invaluable in the administration of our city.

The endorsement of Bill Podgorssek for the other council position is based on the main premise that he sincerely believes in the involvement of the people in the community in which they live.

Not only has Bill shown that he BELIEVES in that involvement policy but he practices what he preaches.

He has two youngsters in Hazelwood School, so Bill is an active member (and an officer) of the home and school club, as well as Cub Scouts.

PODGORSEK

As a member of St. Lucy's parish, Podgorssek is active in church activities.

And, on the city government side, Podgorssek is vice-chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission and was chairman of the successful citizens park bond campaign committee in 1969.

We think he will carry this same enthusiasm into the City Council and we feel the city as a whole will benefit from it.

Homer Hyde is stepping down as a councilman after more than six years of dedicated service to his native community as a councilman and many years of prior service on the Planning Commission.

We sincerely feel that Bill Podgorssek will be an excellent replacement for Homer Hyde and we urge his election next Tuesday.

As we have said so many times, an editor of a community newspaper, such as The Campbell Press, has the unenviable task at election time in endorsing or not endorsing his personal acquaintances.

This is seldom true in the state or national elections. Recommendations in those instances are of a more impersonal nature.

Kel Young, for example, we have personally known for many years and we are well aware of his sincere desire to build a better Campbell. Unfortunately, there are only two positions open on the City Council. We had to make a choice.

CITY CLERK

We have no such problem in making our recommendation for the office of City Clerk.

We sincerely believe that Dorothy Trevethan has served the city faithfully and well over the past 18 years that she has been the city clerk and she deserves reelection.

We are particularly proud of Dorothy's proven record to have grown with the city. She is the senior employee in point of service now on the city payroll. There were three city employees when she took office. There are now 110.

She has seen a complete turnover of city councilmen several times but each Council has recognized her ability and has given her added responsibility in the city administration.

We urge you to give Dorothy Trevethan an overwhelming vote of confidence in next Tuesday's election.

"KEYED UP" IS THE way our joint was described last week.

And that was the way it was.

As part of the grand opening program for Colonial Savings, Campbell's first savings and loan firm, The Press contracted with Jim Schafer, vice-president of Colonial and manager of the Campbell branch, to stick a real key on Colonial's full page ad that appeared in last week's edition!

When you consider that it meant sticking 5000 individual keys on one certain spot in each paper, you get some idea of the magnitude (for The Press anyway) of the operation.

It was purely a manual operation, as you probably realize.

Each of the 50 carrier bundles had to be untied, the keys placed on the ads and then the bundle retied.

Teams of two people worked each stack of papers. It was all done at the plant and, if you stretched a point or two, it was sort of a fun-time for the gang of key people, in a vague sort of way.

We question whether one can call that early in the morning fun. For us anyway.

It was the first time The Press had ever tackled such a sticky problem.

But all concerned (including Schafer and the Colonial people) were pleased with the results...

The response from the people receiving keys was great, according to Jim, although he did not mention how many of the keys turned in fitted the treasure chest.

But the open house at Colonial is still going on.

If you haven't dropped by the attractive new quarters for Colonial (the firm operated from a mobile home in virtually the same location for a year), you should. And bring your key.

POPULATION EXPLOSION has now become a common phrase in some circles.

Of course, the phrase pertains to people.

Recently, however, we observed an example of "population explosion" in Campbell in which no humans were involved.

Just pigeons.

When the weeds on the former Gomes Ranch were being plowed under recently, pigeons descended literally by the hundreds onto the freshly plowed earth.

Never in our born days have we ever seen so many birds assembled in one spot as there were on that field that particular Saturday morning.

Of course, we weren't able to tell whether they were all Campbell pigeons.

Chances are the word was passed around (by pidgin-English and via carrier pigeon) to the other communities that there was good pickins' in Campbell that day.

We really should have a soft spot in our heart for pigeons.

After all, we have been known as a pigeon on the golf course for a long time.

Then, again, we must also remember that Campbell is officially (by City Council action) a bird sanctuary.

JayCees drop alliance idea

Until such time as definite community interest can be developed, the formation of a Campbell Service Alliance will be dropped, according to Nozer Haladwala, president of the Campbell JayCees.

The JayCees had attempted to interest other organizations of the community in the project, but because of lack of interest, it was decided at the last meeting of the proposed alliance, at which only 10 organizations were represented, that it would not be feasible to continue under the circumstances.

At previous meetings, representatives of 20 local groups were in attendance. Those present felt that, although the alliance would be useful, without the support of the various organizations, it could not function properly.

Culp becomes

Culp has been with the Campbell Union High School District since 1948, becoming principal of Campbell High in 1958 after serving as teacher, dean and vice-principal prior to his selection to head the school.

Culp, who is married and the father of three sons, lives in the district at 13638 Riverdale Court, Saratoga, near Westmont. One son is now attending Westmont and another was graduated from there.

And for sure on that day, Campbell was really for the birds.

NATURALLY, MENTIONING litter next would be appropriate.

New York Life personnel in the area (that long-established company now has a district office in "The Towers") were justifiably upset recently when stacks and stacks of New York Life literature and cards were accidentally dumped near an intersection on Bascom.

It occurred on a windy day and you can imagine what happened.

New York Life was in no way responsible for the littering but it was the firm's material that was scattered to the four winds.

So we imagine there were some calls made to NYLIC.

The stuff was not being carried by postal letter-carriers.

Details as to how it happened are still a little vague. Apparently the independent carrier that was transporting the stuff dropped it from his truck and did not stop to try to rectify the situation or maybe he was unable to do anything about it.

But it was pretty messy for quite a spell.

FILLING OUT THE CENSUS form, in our household anyway, was a pretty simple matter.

Ordinarily we dislike filling out forms with detailed questions to be answered.

Two such forms that we can mention offhand, for example, that we sweat over this time each year and detest with a vengeance, are Form 1040 and Form 540.

But we really didn't mind the census form...Filling in the dots reminded us somewhat of those coloring books for kids.

So we were officially counted in a hurry in 1970.

That is, if we colored the right spots.

CITY TREASURER

For the office of City Treasurer, we recommend the election of Nadine Sargent.

A life-time resident of Campbell, a graduate of the local schools, a housewife and mother, whose children are now attending the same schools she attended,

Nadine strongly believes in her native community which has expanded far beyond any dreams her parents, who were pioneer residents of the area, might have had.

Nadine will bring to the office of City Treasurer 20 years of banking experience. She held a responsible executive position with the Community Bank of San Jose for five years.

N. SARGENT

The office of City Treasurer is only a part-time position but it is, or should be, an important cog in the wheels of city government, for it is the people themselves who name the treasurer.

We urge the election of Nadine Sargent as City Treasurer in next Tuesday's election.

cent to the theater.

The Council deferred action on the entire package until next Monday in order that a definite answer could be obtained as to whether Sahadi-Morris would allow access to the proposed apartments. A conference was scheduled last week with all parties concerned.

In the S. Bascom Ave. rezoning annexation issue, "The Yardstick," at 2110 S. Bascom, is the "key" to the entire situation.

Residents in the immediate area (mostly in unincorporated territory) have complained that "The Yardstick" business has been so good that it has become a nuisance to them. They asked for the zoning to be limited so that there will be no further expansion by the yardage firm.

The Planning Commission, after four unsuccessful attempts to find an area of agreement among the members pre-zoned the west side of the proposed annexation for professional offices and the east side for medium commercial.

And that's what will be before the Council next Monday, plus action on the annexation itself.

Guild West is also appealing a Planning Commission ruling that cut down the number of units in a proposed apartment complex.

Mrs. Jeanette Watson at Monday's meeting is scheduled to present the 1969 plaque won by the City in the national clean-up program. In a related matter, City Council will award certificates to representatives of the organizations that participated in the Arbor Day landscaping project at the new fire station.

The Council is also expected to authorize the sale of $80,000 in park bonds which will allow the neighborhood park program to get under way.

City Attorney Joe Bonacina is slated to have a proposed ordinance ready for study that will give the City some control in the towing away of vehicles from private property.

Don Hebard, chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission, is scheduled to request a statement of policy from the City Council approving in principle the improvement of Los Gatos Creek through a joint effort of the various governmental agencies involved, Los Gatos, Campbell, the county, and the Santa Clara County Flood Control and Water District.

Planning Commission lives up to oil company's "tough" charge

Campbell's Planning Commission on Monday night apparently lived up to its alleged "reputation" as being "tough", at least as far as a representative of Texaco was concerned, for the Commission unanimously denied the oil company's request. The oil company representative had claimed in his opening remarks that the local planners had been labeled "tough".

Texaco was seeking to convert one of the lube bays in a service station on Hamilton Ave. into a "high prestige" mechanized car wash. The Commission apparently was not impressed by the presentation which specified, among other points, that there would be only seven such installations in the country.

Opposing the modification also was Fred Chez, original owner of the property.

The Commissioners indicated that they didn't think a car wash would be an improvement of the installation.

The Commission deadlocked 3-3 (Jack Healey was absent) on the request of IBM for a 10-unit relocatable office complex. Involved was the question of 18 more parking spaces for employees. Carl Badgett, IBM representative, said that the spaces were not needed because the shifts could be staggered.

The Commission finally ruled that if IBM could demonstrate to Art Kee, planning director, that the spaces were not needed, the condition would be eliminated.

The Commission on Monday also denied the request of the new "Big Brake Safety Center" at 2120 Winchester Blvd. for a larger sign than that specified by staff.

The Commission approved the request of Rolland L. Bruntz for an extension of time for his apartment complex and approved also the variance requested by Mr. and Mrs. Melvin E. Snyder to allow a second story on their home at 405 Payne.

The Commissioners also approved the request of Mr. G. C. Gerlach and Mrs. R. L. Knott for the expansion of their Happy Shoe Nursery School, at 560 N. Harrison, from 24 to 34 children.

Action on a proposed shopping center was continued until April 20 to allow staff to study the modified plans. The proposed center is located at San Tomas Road and Campbell Ave.

The first hearings on the permanent zoning for the Gilman-Dillon-Railway area was scheduled for April 20 also, as were the applications for two industrial buildings

THIS MAN FOR SALE--Jim Colonies, Campbell High Block

C member will sell anything he can find -- including Robert

Peck, principal -- during the Campbell High School Flea Market, April 12.

Campbell High Bucs and PTA co-sponsor Sunday flea market

The date is approaching for all good "fleas" and Buccaneers to head for market. This Sunday, April 12, bargain shoppers will buy, sell, swap, and trade all kinds of treasures at the Annual Flea Market in the Campbell High School parking lot. The PTA and Buccaneer Club, sponsors of the events, are anticipating a large crowd as all reserved booths have been sold. Sellers will begin setting up their wares at 8 a.m. and the gates will be open to the buying public from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The day will begin even earlier for many Campbell High supporters as members of Block C, boys athletic club, and their coaches will be flipping pancakes in the school cafeteria to serve the crowd attending the Flea Market. Breakfast will be served from 7 a.m. to 11 a.m. Tickets are $1.25 for adults and $.75 for children. They may be purchased from Block C members now or at the door. The club hopes to be able to purchase new track uniforms with the money they earn.

An invitation is extended to any music group who would like to debut their talent during the day. This could be the opportunity to open the door for public engagements. Arrangements can be made by calling 378-6431.

Donations are still being received for the PTA booth. Outdated furniture, small appliances, old TVs, tools, lamps, vases or what-have-you (except clothing) are being collected. Items may be brought to the school office on Friday or arrangements can be made for pick-up of larger items by calling Bill Mitchell at 378-0615 evenings.

The Buccaneer Booster Club will don their chef's hats and aprons as they keep a ready supply of popcorn, sno cones, hot dogs, cold drinks and coffee throughout the day.

A culminating highlight of the day will be the drawing of raffle tickets for a Polaroid camera, ski boots, and clock radio.

WSCS hears talk on Indians

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the First United Methodist Church of Campbell, will meet at 10 a.m. on Thursday, April 9.

"American Indians, the Forgotten Minority" will be the theme of the program. Speaking will be George Woodward, president of the American Indian Council of Santa Clara Valley.

Following the morning meeting luncheon will be served at 12:15 p.m. by the Peony Circle.

Grange Meeting

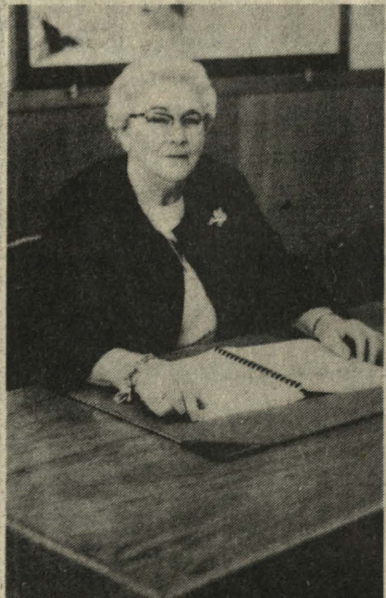

The committee of Women's Activities of the Orchard City Grange will hold their monthly work session and meeting on Friday, April 10. Members are asked to bring a sack lunch and be prepared for work. Zelia Martin, president, will direct the work session.

The regular meeting of the Grange will be held Tuesday, April 14 at 7:30 p.m. at the Grange Hall, 109 N. First St. Presiding will be Fred Johnson, Grange master.

Bringing up fido

Reams and reams of paper have been devoted to "how to pick a puppy."

Dog food companies, pet shops, trainers, and dog clubs have printed books and brochures and pamphlets on the subject.

Is there a right way to pick a dog?

Many people have simply "acquired" a dog and found it was the best pet they ever had.

Others have gone to great lengths and still ended up unhappy.

I think the first rule is to analyze what you want in a pet.

Do you want a small dog that can live in small quarters? Do you enjoy spending time with the dog? If you have no children, do you still prefer a pet that enjoys the company of children?

My first dog was a small cocker-type that followed me home from school. In thinking back, I realize he wasn't the ideal pet, because my ignorance of dog etiquette was limited and I allowed him to develop bad habits.

As an adult, I decided I wanted a BIG dog and didn't recognize the fact that today's small yards don't lend themselves too well to a hunting breed.

When you go to purchase a puppy, try to get a look at his parents. If his mother is an easy-going dog, he may well be easy-going also. If she is super-active, he is half hers, and can be super-active too.

If you want a Great Dane, but live in an apartment, where will the dog exercise? Do you have time to take him for long walks and for an occasional romp in a deserted area or fenced-in park?

If he is a heavy coated dog who will require a great deal of grooming, are you prepared to spend the time or the money to keep him looking and feeling his best?

I once read that you shouldn't pick the puppy who "hangs back" in the litter. I have since found that sometimes by taking that puppy away from his brothers and sisters and playing with him will develop his personality so that he is every bit as outgoing as the others, so I've somewhat discarded that theory.

If you want a quiet dog, then take the quiet one. If you want to train him for obedience, then you should take the more out-going type.

In all fairness to dogs, it should be pointed out that certain characteristics seem to be more prevalent in certain types.

The sporting dog enjoys retrieving, running and clowning. He's generally not a noisy dog, but can be destructive if not kept under control.

The hound is a gregarious lover; however, he can be rather vocal and this can be disconcerting.

The working dog is generally the best all-around pet.

He can be easily trained to be quiet, is no more or less destructive, but is happiest when he has some responsibilities. Temperament in working dogs can be a problem, since, as they have become popular, dogs who are high-strung have resulted. "I leave understand that is not to say that this is widespread; only that poor temperament frequently breeds poor temperament."

The terrier is feisty, but a lot of fun and a happy active family dog.

The toy breeds are generally not for small children, but are great companions and house pets.

The non-sporting dogs include poodles, bull-dogs, dalmatians and keeshunds, and many of them really belong to the other "groups."

So that's my two-cents worth on picking the right dog.

By the time you read this, you've probably already gotten a dog anyway.

Right?

Del Mar School holds quality rummage sale

Quality rummage will again be offered for sale at the annual Del Mar High School Rummage Sale on April 18 and 19.

This event has always been a huge success in the past because of the superior quality of the articles offered for sale. Sale times have been set for Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The school is located at 1224 Del Mar Ave., just off Bascom Ave.

An "everything goes" sale will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 19, when shoppers may fill a large shopping bag for only $1.

The sale is sponsored by the Del Mar PTA and proceeds will be used for athletic equipment, the yearbook and scholarship fund.

Furniture, knick-knacks, jewelry, toys, bikes, appliances and clothing for the entire family will be included in the rummage.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

Across most of the country the term, "go fly a kite" is a more polite method of telling someone where to go than the usual phrase. But not so in Washington, D.C., where kite flying has been illegal since 1892.

At the request of the D.C. Government, the U.S. Senate is moving to repeal the obsolete law, but as of March 28, no final action had been taken and it was too late to save this year's "Kite Carnival".

For the past three years the Smithsonian Institution has given Washington kite flying enthusiasts at least one chance to legally practice their respected hobby. Under a special permit the Institution has staged a highly popular kite contest on the famous Capitol Mall.

The event attracted hundreds of enthusiasts of all ages and was a great source of pleasure. But this year, thanks to Washington's "Hippy Revolutionaries" and their tactics of rule or ruin, nobody at all will enjoy the annual "Kite Carnival".

It seems that last year a young man was arrested for flying a kite on the P Street "beach", a well known Hippy hangout. Apparently the "Mod" group then determined to make a test case of the Smithsonian event which is always held in early April. Editor Sal Torey of the "Quicksilver Times," Washington's underground newspaper, wrote to the Capitol Park Service on March 13 requesting a permit to hold a kite flying contest on July 4. He closed his letter with the words "In the Struggle".

The requested permit was denied and Torey rebutted that if the Smithsonian was allowed to fly kites on the Mall, this was discrimination. So Park Service Superintendent William R. Failor was forced to deny any and all permits.

Another request came from a Georgetown University student who said, "Like man, I ain't got no $10 billion to spend for violating Title 22, Chapter 11...so this is why I'm going through the insane bureaucracy to ask for my freedom. Hang loose man, Your buddy, James."

Another writer signed her letter with the peace symbol and said, "I dig the theatre of the absurd and so hereby make application for a kite flying permit..."

Permits are issued for massive demonstrations in Washington without hesitation. Last fall the Vietnam moratorium attracted hundreds of thousands and cost the city millions. Though it was reported as peaceful, and by and large it was, I personally saw a full block near DuPont Circle where every store window had been broken by Hippy Revolutionaries. Yet these same types can deny decent people the right to enjoy some clean fun flying an innocent kite one day of the year.

As far as I am concerned the Park Service Superintendent made a bad decision. He should have told the Hippy crowd to collectively "go fly a kite". Then he should have warned the populace to stay upwind. It's an ill wind that blows from "Hippy Town".

MYF sponsors chili supper

Camden Chatter

by Paul Bell

Camden's math students, Robert Gray and Stephen Morlien, represented Camden High School in the 11th Annual Central Coast Mathematics Contest last Saturday, April 4, in the San Jose IBM cafeteria. They competed with an estimated 100 other young mathematicians for shares of $675 in U.S. Savings Bonds offered by the San Jose Mercury and News.

Four seniors have been chosen to participate in the Bank of America Achievement Award of 1970 representing Camden. Plaque winners from Camden are: Richard Bebb, liberal arts; Lorraine Bender, fine arts; Roberta Gray, science and mathematics; and Sandy Kemp, vocational arts. They were judged 50% on their grades, 25% on activities and 25% on their interview. Winners competed in the Zone Competition on March 31 and now go on to the final Selection Competition at Del Monte Hyatt House in Monterey on May 27.

Camden's All-School Play this year is presenting "Send Me No Flowers". The play will be held in the cafeteria on April 23, 24 and 25. Everyone is invited, so bring your family and friends. The price is only $1.25 for adults and $1 with an ASB card. Showtime is 8 p.m.

Against a placid red, white and silver color scheme, the Class of '71 will hold their annual Junior Prom. The prom will be held on Saturday, May 16 at Alfies with the theme being "On the Threshold of a Dream". This will be the first Junior Prom to be held off campus in Camden's history. Bids will cost $4 and will be available in a few weeks.

A lot of fairy godmothers will be busy tonight turning senior girls into beautiful princesses with flowing gowns. Pumpkins will be turned into daddy's good car and then off to La Rinconada where the "Age of Aquarius" is dawning over shades of blue and green.

At the sound of the twelfth bell the girls and guys will shed their evening clothes and get into casual attire. The Safari Room will be the big place for ALL seniors to be at from 1 a.m. when the Class of '70 will have their after-ball party.

Prospect Pulse

by IVALEE INGRAHAM

With the spring sports season well under way, Prospect meets Del Mar tomorrow at Prospect for baseball and track. The swimming and diving team journeys to Los Gatos Friday for a meet. All games start at 3:30.

Prospect's athletic department is sponsoring a Blue Chip Stamp Day next Wednesday. Any stamp books collected will go towards a Universal Weight Machine. This machine is an exerciser that can handle 13 people at once. The machine will be used by all P.E. classes, athletic teams, and summer weight lifting classes.

So far, $1100 has been collected from Blue Chip stamp books and donations by Letterman's Association and Panther Paws. Spirit Commission and Letterman's Association urge all students to bring at least one stamp book next Wednesday.

At the State Qualification Tournament held for Speech and Debate last Saturday, Ed Church won a first in oral interpretation. This makes him eligible for State Finals held in the Los Angeles area later this spring.

Panther Concert Band and Intermediate Band will hold their annual Spring Concert next Friday, April 17. Also performing will be the Brass Ensemble and Percussion Ensemble. Tickets are 50¢ per person, and should be on sale this week and all next week.

PHARMACY PHACTS

By Allan Blaine

80% of all prescriptions dispensed in the United States last year cost less than $5.00.

A kidney used for transplant must be taken within five to ten minutes after death. The kidney can be kept going for a day or more after removal.

In the century from 1869 to 1969, violent death has claimed 120,000 miners in the United States - an average of one hundred per month.

Alcoholics need twice the anesthetic of other individuals to be put to sleep, says Dr. Han of St. Vincent's Hospital in New York City. Excessive alcohol intake destroys myelin, or nerve coating.

Doctors at a Hamburg University clinic say heavy cigarette smoking is a factor in heart attacks in men and women under forty-five.

WE NEED NEW UNIFORMS—Del Mar High School soccer players Dennis Padill, Jay Watt, Bob Shepard and Jim Calice (on ground) are all working hard on the April 18, 19 rummage sale. New soccer uniforms will be purchased from part of the proceeds of the sale.

Property owners must pay next tax installment

Property taxpayers are being warned by County Finance Director Edward N. Glaeser that if they wish to avoid a penalty they must pay the second installment of taxes before April 10.

Last year taxpayers who did not heed the warning on tax payment deadlines contributed over $400,000 in penalties on delinquent payments.

Glaeser explained that the decision as to whether or not a payment is delinquent is based upon the postmark on the envelope in which the payment was sent. Taxpayers are urged to be sure that their payment envelopes are deposited in the mail in sufficient time to secure a postmark prior to Friday, April 10, 1970.

Dropping the payment in a corner mail box at the last minute does not necessarily assure the taxpayer of a postmark prior to the delinquency date, Glaeser said.

Any payment postmarked after April 10, 1970, will necessitate the addition of a six per cent penalty and $3 per parcel costs. A list of all property upon which taxes are not paid by the April 10 deadline will, according to law, be published in local community newspapers. Property taxes remaining unpaid on June 30, 1970 will be reported delinquent to the State as of that date and additional penalties will accrue.

The Tax Collector's office under L. E. Engeman, Assistant Finance Director, advises that failure to receive a tax bill does not relieve the property owner of the payment of penalty if the taxes become delinquent.

"If you need a tax bill, you can obtain one at the Tax Office, Room 107, County Administration Building, 70 West Hedding St., San Jose," Engeman said. He added, "Remember the second installment stub is attached to your tax bill. Tear off the remaining stub and mail with your payment. Your cancelled check is your best receipt."

Local students named BofA zone contest winners

Steven Borsgard of Campbell High School, was named winner in the science and mathematics zone competition in the annual Bank of America Achievement Awards program.

Placing in the fine arts division was Richard McIntyre of Leigh High School. The two outstanding students from the Campbell High School District are assured of a minimum award of $150 and a chance to compete in the area finals May 27.

Winners of $50 second place awards in the zone competition from Campbell High School District were Lorraine Bender, Camden, fine arts; Marc Johnston, Leigh, liberal arts; Marjorie Gunderson, Blackford, vocational arts; and Debra Dison, Leigh, science and math.

Placing third and receiving $25 were Robert Mommsen, Westmont, fine arts; Elwood Sturtevant, Blackford, liberal arts; Celeste Williams, Branham, vocational arts; and Richard Wright, Blackford, science and math.

Winners were selected on the basis of scholastic records, participation in school and community activities as well as interviews before a panel of distinguished civic leaders.

Homeowners file property tax exemptions

It is time for homeowners and veterans to file for their 1970 property tax exemptions, the County Assessor's Office reports. Application forms have been mailed to 250,000 homeowners in the County.

Any owner who did not receive the forms should contact the Assessor's Exemption Division, 200 W. Hedding St., San Jose in the basement of the Municipal Court Building.

Anyone who owned and lived in his own home, duplex, or condominium apartment on March 1 is entitled to a $750 exemption on the assessed valuation of his property for 1970. A California veteran is entitled to a $1,000 exemption.

Veterans who are now receiving the $1,000 exemption should also apply for the homeowner's exemption. The Assessor's Office explained that if a veteran fails to qualify for the veterans' exemption they will still be able to claim the $750 exemption. In addition, if the veteran owns his own home as well as a second home, he may claim a homeowner's exemption on his house and the vet's exemption on the second dwelling.

CMEA installs officers

Cruz Gomes, Jr. civil engineer for the City of Campbell, was installed as president of the Campbell Municipal Employees Association. Installation ceremonies were conducted by Robert Stephens.

Campbell city manager, during the Fourth Annual spring fling dinner dance held last Friday at Alpine Lodge.

Other officers who will officially take office May 1 are Bob Terwilliger, fire captain, vice president; Inez Roybal, receptionist, secretary; and Bob Rigsby, planning department, treasurer.

Paul Schommer, Campbell policeman, served as chairman for the delightful affair. Dancing to the music of Frank Palermo's band rounded out the evening. Palermo just happens to be an employee in the Campbell public works department.

Dr. John Thomas speaks April 11

In connection with the local observance of Public Schools Week which will be held April 20 to 24, the Liberty Lodge No. 299, F. & A. M. is sponsoring a lecture by Dr. John H. Thomas, associate professor of biological sciences, Stanford University on Saturday, April 11 at 7:30 p.m. at the San Jose State College music department auditorium.

Members of the Leigh High School Band will also be playing during the evening. Dr. Thomas will speak on the subject of Education, Attitude Change and Environmental Deterioration. The program is open to the public.

in colonial times and found favor with the ladies of the court before coming to U. S. They are compact little dogs, alert, clean and make good companions.

Voters' registration deadline for primary ends on April 9

The deadline to register to vote, either for English-speaking or Spanish-speaking persons, is getting close, County Registrar of Voters George Mann warns. The deadline is April 9.

The Registrar's Office for the first time is taking registrations of persons who are literate in Spanish, but not in English, as a result of the recent Supreme Court ruling.

At least 30,000 persons need to re-register to vote in the June 2 State Primary Election because they failed to vote in the 1968 state elections, Mann warned.

Several thousand more who read Spanish are eligible for the first time. Mann explained that they may register with any deputy registrar who speaks Spanish or they may bring someone with them to interpret while they register.

Others who need to register are persons who have become 21 years of age and have not registered and those who have moved into the state and the area since the 1968 elections.

To vote a person must be a United States citizen, 21 years of age, a resident of the state for one year, a county resident for 90 days and be able to read the State Constitution in English or Spanish.

Mann said that registration or re-registration can be done at any city or county firehouse. Also deputy registrars sometimes set up desks in the lobbies of stores, buildings and other public places.

There is an easy registration method for persons who are registered in Santa Clara County but have moved to a new address within the County. These voters can use a simple postcard change of address form, which is available in Post Office lobbies and from the personnel departments of many employers.

College planetarium schedules school astronomy classes

Tracking the stars outdoors on cold, windy nights really isn't much fun. Students in the West Valley area, however, are finding star tracking increasingly entertaining and extremely educational, for they are doing it in the warmth and confines of a new planetarium.

West Valley College implemented a new school planetarium program this spring, utilizing the college's new facility which opened this past fall. Student reaction to the new program has been overwhelming.

A sixth grade class from Rolling Hills School viewed one showing of the planetarium in early March, and subsequently wrote to the college, praising what they had seen.

One of the students, Mike Matovech, in Mrs. Barbara Veneski's class said, "the presentation that Tom and Doug gave us really shot us into orbit." The two men the young student refers to are Tom Bullock, instructor at West Valley College, and his planetarium student assistant, Douglas Eckley.

Mrs. Veneski's class as well as other classes in feeder schools in West Valley's district are getting a chance once a week to view the two-hour show.

Each week Bullock alternates between a show on "Tracking the Stars" and "Orbiting the Sun." In this age of space exploration, awareness of what the sky holds is even more important than it was a few years ago.

During the two shows Bullock explains the three methods of exploring space: by space vehicles, telescopes, or direct observation; our solar system and its relation to other solar systems and the zodiac; various phenomenon, such as asteroids and comets; and other related matter.

The school astronomy program was one result of the first show ever presented in the planetarium in December. At that time the public overwhelmingly responded to "The Star of Wonder" showing.

In addition to the school program, a public planetarium program is also underway. Each Friday night from April to June the public will have a chance to explore the wonders of outer space. Because of the great demand for the showings, advance reservations are required and can be made through the Office of Community Services, 44 E. Latimer Ave., Campbell, room L-26, telephone 379-1733, ext. 58. A flat 50 cent admission fee is charged for the Friday night showing.

FENCERS MEET

All fencers and prospective fencers interested in the sport are invited to attend a Thursday, April 9 meeting. The 7:30 p.m. meeting will be held in the Los Gatos High School Women's Gym, for the purpose of applying for a charter to form a local division of the Amateur Fencers League of America. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Julia Lichtenstein at 264-1850.

St. Lucy's Altar Guild holds luncheon

COMMITTEE WORKERS—Admiring the lovely salads at the recent St. Lucy's Altar

sente, Ann Dardanelli, Sophie Lucas and Eleanor Magnasco.

Wonderful salads of all shapes, sizes, kinds and tastes were spread on two bountiful buffet tables Thursday, April 2, when the ladies of St. Lucy's Altar Guild put on their annual wine-tasting salad luncheon at Kennelly Hall.

Over 200 ladies enjoyed the hand-clapping music played during the meal time by The Bell-tones, a quartet of western music makers, all employed by the Pacific Telephone Company. Different varieties of wines in both dry and sweet were sipped by the ladies prior to the luncheon.

Afterwards a drawing was held for the grand door prize and other prizes given away during the afternoon. The tables were beautifully decorated with lovely floral arrangements and individual dish gardens marked each place setting.

Chairman of the delightful affair was Mrs. Joe Aversente, who also provided us with the delicious jello mold recipe printed in this issue. Theme for the luncheon was "America the Beautiful".

THE WINNER—Mrs. Mary Frank, 90 years young, won the prize for being the oldest lady attending the recent St. Lucy's Altar Society luncheon.

Mrs. Frank, 14381 Winchester Blvd., has lived in the area for 50 years. With her is her daughter, Mrs. Wilda Natoli.

DOOR PRIZE WINNER—Mrs. Theresa Love, 79 LaPaz in Campbell was the lucky recipient of the money tree which was the door prize at the St. Lucy's Altar Society recent luncheon. Drawing the lucky number was Dennis Patrick Small.

Lime and Orange Special Salad

Mrs. Joe Aversente

This recipe should be made in two parts, with the second layer poured or spooned on top of the first layer. Both recipes are identical except that one calls for lime jello and the other for orange jello.

- 1 cup water
- 1 small pkg. lime or orange jello
- ½ pkg. of plain gelatin

Bring water to boil, add to jello and gelatin in large bowl. Mix until dissolved. Add eight cubes ice and stir until jello thickens slightly.

- Add 1 small can crushed pineapple.
- Beat with electric mixer, medium slow, then add: ½ pint small curd cottage cheese.
- Mix at low speed. Add: ¼ cup mayonnaise

Mix well. Fold in 1 small container of Cool Whip. Pour in jello mold which has been washed in cold water. Refrigerate and enjoy!

In other action Thursday night, the board: Approved financial claims totaling $19,804.09.

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By Al Saliccia

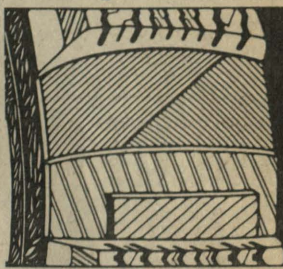

Here's a golf question that may surprise you...Of all the pro golfers in the world today, which one has won the most tournaments?...It's not Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Billy Casper or Gary Player, but Roberto DeVicenzo of Argentina, who's best remembered for the scorecard error that cost him the 1968 U.S. Masters championship ... DeVicenzo has won more overall golf tournaments than anyone else, although most golf fans wouldn't guess that he had.

Here's an oddity from baseball...In 9 of the last 10 years, the men who led the American League in batting were lefties - while, oddly enough, just about the reverse is true in the National League where righties have won the batting championship 8 of the last 11 years.

Obituaries

ROY BRITTON

Funeral services were held last week for Roy J. Britton, 65, who passed away March 30. Britton was employed as manager of planning at Lockheed until his retirement two years ago. He made his home at 3 La Paloma St.

A native of Missouri, he is survived by his wife, Julia Britton and four children; Mrs. Betty Griter of Kansas and Marvin, James and Robert Britton, of Missouri.

BIG FRONT

President John Tyler's home has a 300-foot facade, one of the longest house fronts in the United States.

West Valley Sports

BASEBALL

The West Valley College baseballers have finally found a winning trail in the Camino Norte Conference and will be looking to continue on the same path in action this week as they will compete with three of the league's pace-setters.

The Vikings, with back-to-back wins over Solano and Contra Costa, challenge De-Anza in Cupertino Thursday, come back to host Canada Saturday at Washington Park, and combat loop leading Santa Rosa Tuesday up North. Valley clobbered CCC 11-3 last Tuesday and bounced back to take Solano 10-4 Thursday before taking a break from action over the weekend.

VIKE SWIMMERS

The VVC Swimmers will attempt to end their 1970 dual-meet season on a winning note as they journey to Stockton to challenge San Joaquin Delta Saturday morning.

GOLF

Experiencing probably their worst season ever, the West Valley golfers are searching for only their fourth win of the 1970 campaign in a revenge match with the Stanford Frosh next Monday.

The Indian yearlings drove and putted their way to a 24½-2½ win over the Vikings in play last Friday at the tough Stanford course.
